

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE TEACHING ASSIGNMENT

You are invited to give a traditional lecture or present a case study in English to the VAMK students.

The length of the traditional lecture should be 45 minutes. You can give the same lecture several times during Tuesday and Wednesday.

If you are presenting a case study, the structure could be:

1. 45min. lecture introducing your topic and explaining the case study – giving the assignment to the students
2. 45 min. of coaching if the students have questions regarding the given assignment
3. 45 min. presentations of case related results by the students and giving feed-back to the students

Mini-fair is organized on Wednesday afternoon. You are invited to present your own university and country and make them even more visible. The target group will be VAMK students and staff members. If you wish, you can send material beforehand to the International Office of VAMK:
